

Island Activities

Snorkel Trips- Many snorkel boats will take you to Molokini, a natural marine preserve and bird sanctuary, which is one of the most visually stimulating snorkel experiences available in Maui. Molokini harbors over 250 varieties of tropical fish that school in cobalt-blue water as clear as glass. Enjoy the tropical landscape that make Maui special, and spot humpback whales as they birth and breach nearby (in season). Next, go to a second remote dive for more snorkeling in this underwater wonderland. Enjoy a BBQ lunch served on board with refreshing icy soda, juices and bottled water. Usually includes: Two snorkeling sties + Continental breakfast + All snorkel gear and instruction + Soda and snack served all day long.

Whale Watch- Hawaii's official whale season begins on December 15 and continues through May 15. Boats leave from both Maalaea Harbor (25 min Drive Time) and Lahaina Harbor (45 min Drive Time). Whale watches are generally two hours long and many are guaranteed (you go again until you see them!). Tours are offered throughout the day but mornings offer better ocean conditions.

Scuba Diving- Complimentary scuba lessons are offered daily at 10:00am and 1:30pm in the Grand Wailea Scuba Pool. After completing the 1-hour lesson, guests are eligible to participate in Introductory Dives (non-certified dive with instructor) from the beach in front of the resort. Dive charters are also available from the Kihei Boat Ramp (5 min Drive Time). Introductory and certified 2-tank dives include Molokini Crater and a second site (site dependant on water conditions). Certified divers are required to bring their dive card when boarding the boat. Height and weight are required if all equipment is needed. If it has been a year or more since your last dive, a refresher course (ex. the complimentary lesson) is required. Advanced diving is also available.
